

CHS Newsletter-October, 2019

We welcomed 110 CHS Members and Guests on October 20 at our 49th Annual Pioneer Dinner. thanks to Ken, the Committee and everyone who helped out!

Ideas In? -We invite CHS Members to suggest additional ideas to engage our children and grandchildren in 2020! If you have suggestions or ideas, let's hear them!

Please advise Dan Furlan (204-232-0903) if you have suggestions.

Fast Breaking News

Grey Cup Tickets-Ken Morrissette (204-895-2787) already has the tickets and you can pick them up at the Museum, Saturdays! Please take a book or two as this is one of our best fund raisers.

Joint Board Meeting with Manitoba Historical Society-On October 15, the CHS Board and MHS Council held a joint meeting to share information and discuss how we could support each others' efforts. This is a very timely special initiative of MHS, and we will keep you informed on developments.

The Fort Garry Horse Museum and Archives-The FGH Museum is designed to display the history of the Regiment from its origins to the present time through use of artifacts, photographs and archival material. Gordon Crossley, Director of the FGH Museum has been of invaluable assistance to our CHS Museum and presents another Heritage Lecture on Nov. 4. Individual CHS Members are invited to visit the FGH Museum (open Tues. 7:30-10 pm). If a group visit is planned, it will be advertised to members.

Charleswood Museum (2-4 pm, Saturdays) and New Library Display!

Our current library display of Fall Crafts will be replaced at month end with Remembrance Day. We also offer special tours, free maps for kids of Charleswood's Historic Square Mile, and have just reprinted more copies of our popular history book, "Photos & Fragments of Charleswood History".

Committees & Programs

Invitation to CHS Members

To plan events and services we invite new and existing members to join Committees such as Fund Raising, Social, Membership, and others. Our Museum, Lecture Series, Doors Open, Caron House, Pioneer Dinner, fund raisers and more, don't just happen on their own. Many hands make light work, so please help us continue our success by joining a Committee of your choice or helping if asked to do so.

Call Dan Furlan (204-232-0903) to find see which you may be interested in.

Website Development (www.charleswoodhistoricalsociety.ca)

A volunteer is needed to develop our Photo Gallery, a real positive feature for the website. We welcome your old pictures for our Photo Gallery and will post links to other history websites.

Our new brochure for Community and Schools Programs lists special presentations and walking tours. Do you know groups who may want a presentation or tour? Call Deanne Coombs 204-837-2312.
