The 2026 Honourees

Marcy Beaucage

Marcy has given over 30 years of service to the community as the "Ice Man" for Roblin Park C.C. The property surrounding the Roblin Park community centre structure is now Marcy Beaucage Park, named for Lloyd "Marcy" Beaucage. Marcy has been a volunteer, including grounds-keeper, ice maker, board member, coach, at the Roblin Park Community Centre (RPCC) since 1988.

Gwen Jamieson

Gwen is a long-time Society member and has served on the Board of Directors for 15 years. She has opened the museum and welcomed guests every Saturday since its inception. Gwen has shared her wealth of knowledge through tours, programs, collections, library exhibits and as a valuable volunteer for events and functions.

Peter Ostash

Peter has been very involved with Our Lady of Perpetual Help parish, the Knights of Columbus and Habitat for Humanity for many years. He has coached baseball, hockey and soccer at Roblin Park C.C. and was instrumental in the building of the playground at Beaumont School.

Dan Furlan

Dan has been a very active member of the Society for many years and a Board member for 11 years. Dan's service to the community has included youth groups, the Square Mile tour, lectures, presentations, the CHS newsletter, and an amazing amount of historical research. The Charleswood Museum and the Society is indebted to Dan for his generosity.
